The squad members have to conduct frequent rounds in the campus to ensure that there is no ragging or other unacceptable incidence occur in the campus. They are expected to be mobile, active and alert at all time. They have the power to inspect places of potential ragging and also conduct surprise raids on hostels, canteen, parking ground and other hot spots. For effective functioning, the squad will be divided into groups consisting of faculty members and students. The squad will be under the supervision of Anti-Ragging Committee.

More student's squad members can be added to this list, if necessary. Students, parents, teachers etc., may approach squad members in case of any complaint or suggestions related with ragging.
